

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Mary Trombitas

---

Targeting Leadership (TL) specifically provides strategically targeted leadership coaching and personal growth coaching services to identified emerging and experienced leaders, as well as professionals inspired by personal growth. Experienced working with professionals, corporations, business owners, and other for-profits, Mary also works with non-profits of all types and sizes.

Ms. Trombitas' more than 20 years of experience as a successful corporate leader span an extensive professional background in accounting, finance, and human resources management. She has served in a leadership capacity for the majority of her career. She began her leadership career early where she managed several retail operations before beginning her career with Peat Marwick followed by other Director roles in Accounting and Human Resources in for profit national and global companies. Mary also has an extensive background in non-profit business where she served as Director for the fifth largest Chamber of Commerce.

As an entrepreneur, Ms. Trombitas launched Targeting Performance in 2006 and the affiliate entity, Targeting Leadership in 2015. She is a board-certified coach (BCC) with specialty designations in Executive, Corporate, Business, Leadership; Personal, and Life coaching and is a certified human resource professional (SPHR and SHRM-SCP). She has served as an executive leader for non-profit organization's such as SHRM (Society for Human Resource Management) and the HR Florida State Council. Mary is also the author of Break the Cycle, a book on best practices in organizational leadership.

CONTACT

---

www.TargetingLeadership.com

---

727-399-2680

---

mary@targetingleadership.com

---